ORANGE SHOW REPORT

The 28th April, '18 dawned bright and clear. Great for Orange Show but upsetting for all of us wanting/needing rain. With the help of a great team the arena was up and open for our first test on time at 9:00 am.

In all 25 tests were judged by Alarna Simms of Young, the bulk being the 1.2 but a fair number riding the 2.2. Only one rider for the 3.2 which was a tad disappointing.

Many thanks to my helpers: Beth Maclean, Jacki Norris, Carmel Cass, Alarna & Jarrod Simms and Kerri Picton without whom that section of the show would not happen. Also thanks to Orange Show Society for continuing to run a dressage section allowing dressage to be seen by a wider audience.
